

Health Forms

The Department of Children and Families also requires the Florida Certification of Immunization (Form 680) and the Florida Department of Health School Entry Health Exam Form (DH 3040). Your child's doctor's office (usually the medical records department) can provide both of these forms for your child.